

No Book Left Unread (NBLU) Summer Reading Challenge

Directions for Student Participation

1. See your library media specialist for a student participation registration form.
2. Complete the form.
3. Be sure to get your parents or guardian to sign it giving you permission to participate.
4. Bring the completed signed form to your library media specialist no later than May 21, 2007.
5. Get copies of the summer reading log from your library media specialist. The summer reading log is also available online at <http://ed.sc.gov/agency/offices/tech/ms/lms/ReadingCalendars.html>.
6. Begin reading and read some every day during June, July, and August.
7. Have your parents or guardian sign each day that you read noting the number of pages that you read.
8. Bring your signed reading logs to your library media specialist when school begins.

If you or your parents/guardian have any questions, please contact Martha Alewine (malewine@ed.sc.gov or 864-229-4230).
